

Todd Wodraska is the Vice President of Special District Services, Inc., a company that has creates and manages special districts throughout the State of Florida. He serves as the District Manager for the Ave Maria Stewardship Community District and the West Villages Improvement District, as well as a number of community development districts.

Todd was elected to the Jupiter Town Council in 2004 and is currently serving his second term. He earned his undergraduate degree from FSU and his MBA from Rice University. Todd also sits on the Board of Directors for the FASD.