

Commissioner Brickfield was elected as a Pinellas County Commissioner in 2008 and currently serves on several Boards and Committees including:

- Metropolitan Planning Agency
- Pinellas Suncoast Transit Agency
- Worknet Pinellas Board
- Tampa Bay Regional Planning Council
- Caring and sharing Center for Independent Living

Commissioner Brickfield was first elected to the Safety Harbor Commission in 2000 and served as a City Commissioner until 2004. During this time he served on the Suncoast Transit Authority Board in 2002-2003 and the Pinellas County Metropolitan Planning Organization in 2001-2003.

Commissioner Brickfield's community involvement includes:

- President of the Rotary Club of Clearwater, 2006 - 2007
- Suncoast Tiger Bay Board Member, 2006 - 2008
- Pinellas Police Athletic League Board Member, 2007 - Present
- Tampa Bay Estuary Program's Citizen Advisory Committee, 2007 - 2008
- Safety Harbor Neighborhood Family Center Board Member, 2006 - 2008
- Pinellas County Republican Party Vice Chairman, 2007 - 2008
- Chair of Local Coordinating Board Overseeing Transportation for Veteran's Seniors, the Disabled and Economically Disadvantaged
- Boy Scouts of America

Commissioner Brickfield is a graduate of Providence College with a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology. He and his wife Kelly moved to Pinellas County in 1989 where he established a successful commercial cleaning business and later a private consulting firm.

Neil, his wife Kelley and their three children reside in Safety Harbor.